Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by G.

Cough! and Cough! and Cough!!
What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say:
"Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHER-RY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H.

Remembered His Beast.

A few days ago the writer saw a man going to Washoe lake for a hunt. He had an old mare hitched up to a heavy wagon and she was in an interesting condition too. He had invited four friends to go along and the wagon was piled full of guns, shooting jackets and hunting outfits. The wagon also carried:

Two hampers of provisions.

Two demijohns of whiskey.

One case beer.

Box cigars.

Two bottles claret.

Lot of canned goods.

"What the devil's this?" asked one of the crowd.

"Oh that's a gunny sack full of hay for the horse."

"Ain't it in the way?"

"That's so, there ain't much room."

"Pitch it out, plenty of good feed over there."

So it was thrown out and the jolly party started off. Somebody picked up the sack of hay. It weighed about five pounds and this was all for the poor horse that nearly pulled its heart out getting the crowd to the lake and back. While they were feasting, the animal was nibbling the dry tules.

SOCIETY GOSSIP.

The Caddy Round of Card Parties etc., at the Capital.

Senator Stewart spent Friday in Carson. They had lunch with P.
B. Ellis and wife, dined at the Governor's and returned to Reno by the evening train. From there they will go to St. Louis, where the Senator will attend the Silver convention, thence to Washington to continue his Senatorial labors. It is understood that Mrs. Stewart with her daughter Maybelle, will spend the coming Summer in her Carson home.

Saturday evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Small entertained their friends with a pleasant card party. There were present, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McCabe, Captain E. B. Zabriskie, Mr. and Mrs.
John D. Kersey, Mr. and Mrs. John Elliot, Mrs. Reynolds, the three Misses Chedic, Mrs. Minnie Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dormer.
Mrs. Small had a lovely lunch prepared for her friends.

A movement is on foot looking to the organization of a Chataqua circle, under the name of Tahoe Circle.
The organizers are Reverends Van Deventer, Logan, Gardner and other well-known gentlemen and ladies of Virginia, Reno and this place. The society will incorporate under the laws of Nevada, and will be in active life in a couple of weeks.

Thursday evening the Opera House was crowded to witness the play of Little Lord Fauntleroy.
Those who had read the book were very much disappointed with the manner in which the play was presented. Every time John Piper brings a high priced play here, Carson people pay one dollar and a half for the privilege of going home and hating themselves for the next two weeks.

The Ladies' Relief Corps, a so the W. C. T. U., were compelled to postpone important meetings on account of the storm.

Odd Fellows' Hall was crowded Friday evening to witness the Yo-semite Panorama presented by Col.
J. M. Hutchings. The panorama is all that is claimed for it, and more too. Among other handsome views, Col. Hutchings gave one of Emerald Bay, Lake Tahoe. The little island seemed so near that one almost expected to see the rock hewn grave of Sailor Jack. While at McKinney's, Mr. McKinney told me how Sailor Jack, who lived a hermit's life on the shores of Emerald Bay, had conceived the romantic idea of being buried on the little island. So, patiently, day after day, for several years, he worked away, chiseling out of the solid rock as a last resting place for his weary bones. When his task was finished he thought best to celebrate the event, so taking a small boat he rowed over to McKinney's, where he borrowed a cook stove and bought a jug of whiskey. But fearing the supply would fall short of the demand, he remained at Mc-Kinney's, drinking heavily until sundown. By this time a strong wind had sprung up, and in spite of the earnest persuasion of those present, Jack put the jug of whiskey in the boat beside the stove and started for home. It was thought the wind in rocking the boat must have tipped the stove to one side, thus turning the boat over, for it was found bottom side up on the lake the next morning, and the grave which took Jack so long to fashion out of the rock, still remains without an occupant.

Last Saturday evening the Quill boys secured a four-in-hand, for the purpose of conveying their friends to their paternal home in King's cannon where the evening was passed in music and dancing.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a Xmas Eve entertainment in the Opera House.
There will be recitations, music tableaux and a Xmas tree. Miss Barrett, teacher at the Orphans Home will take a leading part. All are invited to attend.

The Ladies of the Methodist Church think of having their Xmas tree on the evening of the 23d as there will be so many entertainments on Xmas Eve. They have not as yet decided upon any place, but expect to reach some definite conclusion this Sunday.

THE PLACE FOR SULLIVAN.

Scheme to Have the Big Fight on Lake Tahoe.

Some of the sports of this city and Virginia are making up a scheme to have the Sullivan-Jackson fight come off on Lake Tahoe for $25,000. The idea is to have the mill take place on a big barge in the center of the Lake.

The barge would be built especially for the occasion, and be made a big raft made of logs hauled for the occasion from the Lake Tahoe Firme Company.

A raft could be made as large or larger than an acre of ground, and in the center a pit 24 feet square would be filled with earth and tamped down hard.

A big tent would be placed over the ring to keep off the sun, and the raft could be reached by steamers plying from the shore.

The raft could be anchored right on the line, and only holders of $100 tickets allowed to witness the mill.

The managers, who at present wish to be kept in the back ground, expect to receive $50,000 gate money, give a $25,000 purse, run free trains from San Francisco to Truckee for ticket holders and have the fight to a finish without gloves.

By having the raft on the line and the exact location not named until an hour before the fight, the authorities could be evaded and none of the unpleasant experience of Richburg repeated. The air is always cool and pleasant at the lake and the idea is to have the fight come off early in the Spring, with the permission of the California Athletic Club which now has a contract with Jackson.

In fact the APPEAL is informed that several monied men of San Francisco are in the scheme with parties in this State and that leading members of the club favor the idea.

A Word to the Wise.

He—Won't you come out rowing with me?

She—O, I don't dare to!

He—Why, it's all right if you sit perfectly still.

She—I know it; but where's the fun?

So they decided to go down to Olcovich Bros. and do some trading. People find it to their advantage to buy Shoes, Dry Goods, Groceries, etc., at Olcovich Bro., and then their prices are so low it is almost a pleasure to do so.

In a recent article in the Youths Companion, on "How to cure a cold," the writer advises a hot lemonade to be taken at bed time. It is a dangerous treatment, especially during the severe cold weather of the winter months, as it opens the pores of the skin and leaves the system in such condition that another and much more severe cold is almost certain to be contracted.
Many years constant use and the experience of thousands of person of all ages, has fully demonstrated that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts in perfect harmony with nature, relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough tenacious mucus, making it easier to expecto-rate, and restores the system to a strong and healthy condition.

My facilities for purchasing good beef are second to none in the State, and on meat can always be assured of the best in the market.
This market was the first city to introduce the cold storage process, by which meats can be kept a week in the hottest weather. Our cold storage room
